Attorney for Petitioner,
San Francisco Public Administrator

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN AND FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

Estate of MARK CHESTER ANTICEVICH, Deceased.	No. DECLARATION OF DUE DILIGENCE OF ESTATE INVESTIGATOR JOHNSON TRAN

I, Johnson Tran, Estate Investigator and Deputy Public Administrator, San Francisco Public Administrators' office, City and County of San Francisco, State of California, hereby declare that if called as a witness to testify in these proceedings I could testify competently and of my own:

1. Mr. Mark Anticevich ("the decedent") was a San Francisco resident who passed away at his residence located at Cayco's Board and Care Home, 1855 - 35th Ave., San Francisco, CA, on March 16, 2024. The case was referred to our office from the San Francisco Public Guardian's Representative Payee program ("SF Rep Payee").

Next of Kin

2. In the course of my duties as an Estate Investigator I attempted to ascertain the names, current residence, and mailing addresses of the decedent's next of kin. In searching for the decedent's next of kin, I did the following:

a) I began my investigation by calling the decedent's sister, Carol Tageson, whose name was included in the referral materials. Mrs. Tageson informed me of the following: The decedent was never married and never had children and that she is the decedent's only sibling, whether living or deceased. She also let me know that their parents, Chester L. Anticevich and Irma Tofanelli Anticevich, predeceased the decedent. She reported that the father passed away on March 9, 1986, and that the mother passed away on July 13, 1990. I confirmed all of this information via Ancestry.com and Accurint.com. In a search on Ancestry.com ("Ancestry") using the decedent's name, date of birth, and San Francisco as search terms, I located a 1950 Census record that showed the decedent living with his parents and sister, Carol.

Will Search

3. In the course of determining whether the decedent left a will or not, I did the following:

a) I was unable to perform a "residence search," as the decedent's personal belongings had been discarded prior to our office receiving the referral. On or about April 22, 2024, I contacted the care home staff at Cayco's Board and Care Home, asking if they knew of or saw a Will or Trust while clearing the unit and was informed that they did not.

b) I spoke with the decedent's sister on April 16, 2024, who informed me that she did not know whether or not the decedent had a Will or Trust.

c) On March 29, 2024, I went to Bank of America and Chase Bank to search for assets and a safe deposit box in the decedent's name. The banker at Bank of America informed me that they did have a small bank account in the name of the decedent, but no safe deposit box. The banker at Chase Bank informed me that they did not have accounts or a safe deposit box in the name of the decedent.

d) On April 3, 2024, I went to Citibank and Wells Fargo Bank to search for assets and a safe deposit box in the decedent's name. The bankers here also informed me that they did not have any accounts or safe deposit boxes in the name of the decedent.

e) On April 16, 2024, I went to US Bank to search for assets and a safe deposit box in the decedent's name. The bankers here also informed me that they did not have any accounts or safe deposit boxes in the name of the decedent.

In light of my research and investigation, it is my professional opinion that the decedent died intestate and was survived by a sister, Carol Tageson, who is the decedent's sole heir.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct and that this verification was executed at San Francisco, California.
